

Student Revision Resources Guide

Helping yourself with revision:

1. First step to revising is ensuring you have a space and the stationary to do it with (e.g. pens/paper/flash cards/highlighters/files)

What strategies will you use?

e.g. English (mind maps on themes / flashcards for quotes)

maths - practice questions

History - mindmaps and timeline posters

Geography and science - mindmaps

science equations - flash cards

RE - flashcards for definitions or quotes / poster or mindmap for overviews

Business – Mindmaps / Lists / Flashcards

2. Know what you are revising. Make sure you know how you will be examined/ what topics. The Yr11 parent information booklet is on the website and outlines all the examinations for each subject.
3. It is important you stay in touch with your teachers on email - to ask for help with revision, if you're stuck at home. Make sure you access your Microsoft Teams for resources and instructions from teachers.

Suggested revision guides to purchase to help with revision:

You do not need to buy them all. These are just some suggestions. There are plenty of free resources online to access too (see links above)

- Maths - use hegarty maths to practice - <https://hegartymaths.com/>
- Science - https://www.amazon.co.uk/New-Grade-GCSE-Combined-Science/dp/1782945598/ref=sr_1_1?dchild=1&keywords=combined+science+aga&qid=1602652620&sr=8-1

NOTE: Triple science need different revision guides

- English - Mrs Walker goes through all revision and skills needed in class. Can buy additional revision guides if you want (AQA – English language and AQA Text guides for each key text) or access the resources on BBC bitesize.
- RE - Miss Meehan has placed all the revision links and resources on Microsoft Teams. RE also print you booklets. Can also use SENECA.
