19 April 2023

Dear Parent/Carers

You will have no doubt seen in the media that the National Education Union (NEU) has announced further national and regional strike action for teachers in England on the following dates:

- Thursday 27th April 2023
- Tuesday 2nd May 2023

I am contacting you in order to give you as much notice as possible about our arrangements for Thursday 27th April 2023.

School will be open for pupils in Year 11 only in the secondary phase. The Y10 mock exams planned for this day will now take place on Friday 28th April. Please see separate letter regarding provision in the primary phase.

A remote learning offer will be in place via the school website.

I am sorry that you will have to make alternative arrangements for your child at short notice, and that they will experience disruption to their education. The school understands that the situation may be frustrating, and we ask that all members of our school community continue to treat each other with respect. Holy Trinity remains committed to providing a safe and secure environment for our pupils and delivering high quality learning. We are working closely with our staff union representatives to keep up to date with the situation, and I will inform you as soon as possible if arrangements change further.

Kind regards

Mrs L Oldcorn
